

Pentecost Booklet

Have your students become familiar with the Bible story of Jesus' followers at Pentecost with these mini booklets. Differentiated to suit a variety of student abilities, these booklets are a great addition to complete the story of Easter and the coming of the Holy Spirit.

Resource Includes: (5 Booklets)

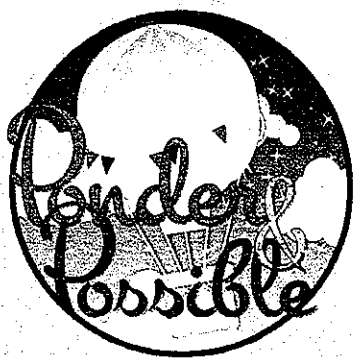

Younger Students:

- Booklet with words and pictures
- Booklet with words only - students add own pictures

Older Students:

- Booklet with words and pictures
- Booklet with words only - students add own pictures
- Booklet with pictures only - students add own words

Commonwealth spelling included.

Teacher Tips

Instructions:

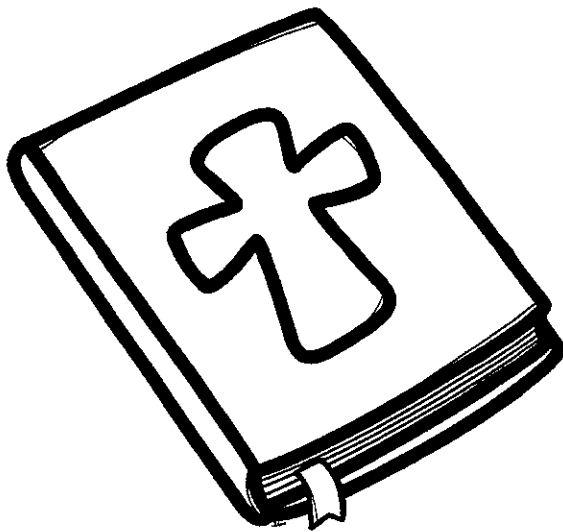

1. Choose ideal booklet
2. Print and copy pages back to back
3. Color
4. Cut out along the dotted line
5. Collate book and staple

or

1. Choose ideal booklet
2. Print and glue pages back to back
3. Color
4. Cut out along the dotted line
5. Collate book and staple

Set 3.

After this, Jesus' followers went out and baptized many and spread the Good News for all.

Pentecost

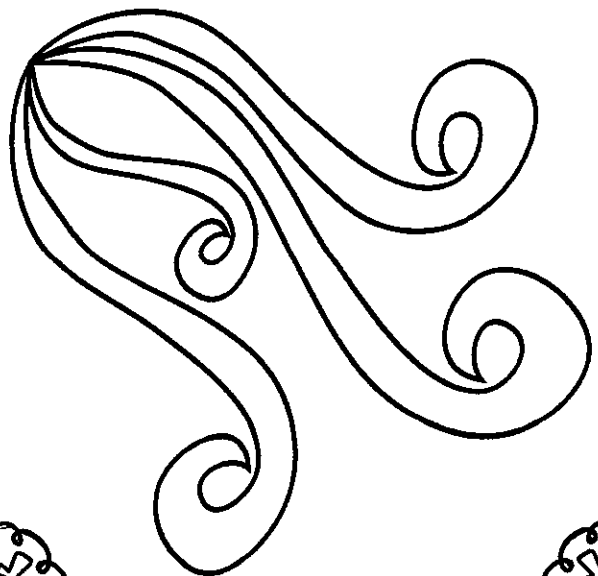

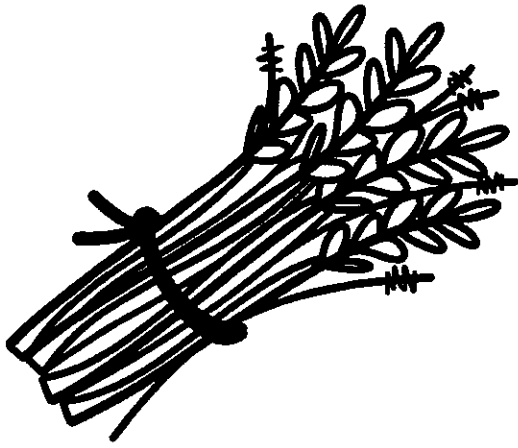

This book Belongs to:

Peter explained, the gift from God that Jesus had promised His followers.

Suddenly, a sound like a huge wind came from heaven and filled the room where the followers were gathered.

Jews from all over the world had gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate Pentecost – The Harvest Festival. Jesus' followers were there too, waiting for the gift that Jesus had promised them.

Many people nearby heard the followers praying and talking about God in their own language and were amazed.

Next, flames of fire flickered and came to rest over every person's head.

GOD...

DIOS...

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in many different languages.

Set 4.

After this, Jesus' followers went out and baptized many and spread the Good News for all.

Pentecost

This book Belongs to:

Peter explained, the gift from God that Jesus had promised His followers.

Suddenly, a sound like a huge wind came from heaven and filled the room where the followers were gathered.

Jews from all over the world had gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate Pentecost - The Harvest Festival. Jesus' followers were there too waiting for the gift that Jesus had promised them.

Many people nearby heard the followers praying and talking about God in their own language and were amazed.

Next, flames of fire flickered and came to rest over every person's head.

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in many different languages.